HISTORY OF DEMOCRACY IN THE UNITED STATES By the Author of the Republic of the United States, &c.

THIS important work is now in press, the first volume of which will be issued early in the utumn of 1854. The publication of this work will be continued by the subscribers; and in due time they will pub-lish in the several States a complete list of agents, who will be prepared to furnish copies promptly in every part of the Union.

That the author may have ample time to prepare his work according to his views of completeness that the publishers may be enabled to issue the numbers with promptness and at stated periods thereby protecting the interest of their agents, the following arrangement is announced in the ful confidence that it will prove acceptable to all, viz: To stereotype the next six numbers, making ten in all, thus completing the first volume before any more are published.

The numbers will then be issued monthly, with-out interruption, to the end. Those who prefer the volume bound will be accommodated without extra charge for binding; and the numbers already published, from one to four, will be taken in part pay, if not injured, at their full cost to subscribers. In announcing this unavoidable delay for a few nonths, the publishers are not unmindful of the earnest desire of many speedily to possess the work. The necessity of accommodating the au-thor, whose labors are incessant, will appear obvious to all without particular explanation.

Dr. William P. Johnson. Dec 3-3md (m H ENRY'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL. Purely Vegetable in its composition.—This invaluable Cordial is extracted from Herbs and Rrsts, which have been found after years of experience, by the most skillful physicians, to be possessed of qualities the most beneficial in the diseases for which it is recommended; and hence, whilst it is presented to the public as an efficais also know acter on which reliance may be placed as to its safety. In cases of Impotency, Hæmorrhages, Disordered Sterility, Menstruation, or Suppression of the Menses, Fluor Albus or Whites, or for

Debility arising from any cause, such as weakness from sickness, where the patient has been confined to bed for some time, for females after confinement, abortion or miscarriage, this cordial cannot be excelled in its salutary effects: or in loss of muscular energy, irritability, physical prostration, seminal weakness, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, sluggishness, decay of the procreative functions, nervousness, &c., where a route medicine is required, it will be found equal f not superior to any compound ever used.

To Females.—Henry's Invigorating Cordial is one of the most invaluable medicines in the many complaints to which females are subject. It as sists pature to brace the whole system, check ex cesses, and creates renewed health and happiness. Less suffering, disease, and unhappiness among ladies would exist, were they generally to adop the use of this cordial. Ladies who are debilitated by those obstructions which females are liable to are restored by the use of a bottle or two to bloom and to vigor. Young Men.—That solitary practice, so fatal to the existence of man, and it is the young who are most apt to become its victims, from an ignorance of the danger to which they subject themselves,

Nervous Debility, weakness of the system. and premature decay. Many of you may now be suffering, misled as to the cause or source of distense. To those, then, who by excess have brought on themselves premature impotency, involuntary seminal emissions, weakness and shrivelling of the genital organs, nervous affection, or any other consequences of unrestricted indulgence of the sensual passions, occasioning the necessity of reuncing the felicities of Marriage, lessening both mental and bodily ca-pacity, hold! Henry's Invigorating Cordial, a medi-cine that is purely vegetable, will aid nature to restore those important functions to a healthy state, and will preve of service to you. It possesses rare virtues, is a general remover of disease, and strengthener of the system.

As a Toulc Medicine, it is unsurpassed. We do not place this cordial on a footing with quack medicines, and, as is customary, append a long list of recommendations, certificates, &c., beginning with "Hear what the Preacher says," and such like; it is not necessary, for "Henry's Invigorating Cordial" only needs a trial to prove that

ALFRED E. BEACH,

No. 56 Nassau street, New York.

PROSPECTUS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA STATESMAN. THE undersigned propose, on the first day of January next, at Raleigh, North Carolina, to begin the publication of the North Carolina Statesman, a semi-weekly and weekly paper, devoted to politics, news, and miscellaneous subjects, and respectfully solicit for it a share of the patronage of the democratic party, their friends, and the Invited by many leading persons of the State rights republican party to propagate and defend principles which we have always held, and regard as the only basis of prosperity in our form of gov ernment, and inspired with a sincere desire to serve that party and advance its interests, we pro pose to issue a paper at the seat of the State gov ernment. In the field of editorial enterprise, there is ample room for those who are now holding po-sition, as well as for others, who choose to enter into fair competition. The propagation of the principles of our party is a duty at once important, and to us peculiarly agreeable. The attrac-tions of the editorial profession and its honorable toils, together with a desire to extend its influence. has had much weight in the decision which we have made—a profession at once dignified and elevated, where the highest intellectual gifts may find full employment, and the purest patriotism make contribution to the public weal. We are persuaded that a journal, conducted with fairness and discretion—uninfluenced by selfishness and devoted to principle, may secure sufficient patronage, without interfering with the claims or rights of any now prosecuting the same great work.

Although mainly devoted to the discussion of such political questions, as they arise, which affect the welfare of North Carolina, whether relating to the federal or State governments, or such local in-terests as may be of importance, it is nevertheless intended to make the Statesman a medium of general intelligence. Accordingly, the state of the markets in the principal cities, to which our com-merce goes, shall be fully and accurately reported; nor will the attention of the conductors be less ad dressed to the subject of internal improvements, as a means indispensable to the development of the mineral and agricultural resources of the State. These interests, of primary importance, shall always command their fullest attention. To this they propose to add carefully selected and original literary matter. Being strictly conservative, they propose to avail themselves of all the lights of ex-

The general objects of the proposed paper being thus clearly indicated, it may not be amiss briefly to state the particular views which are to be sus tained by it as a political journal.

1st. Our purpose being to publish a paper purely democratic, according to the straightest requirements of that party, we shall advocate strict party organization in its fullest and most comprehensive sense; an organization which originates in the popular will, expressed by the people in their primary as will, expressed by the people in their primary as semblies, and which has been so successfully in troduced among the democracy of many of the other States, by which the rank and file of the party are, in fact, those who indicate its decisions and, being all brought into action, express their will imperatively; thus, by open and fair dealing, commanding respect and obedience; an organiza-tion of the people, and not of intriguers; restoring power to those whe, by sufferance, have tolerate s temporary usurpation.

2d. The democratic party shall always find in us advocates of their right to select their standard bearers, and to command acquiescence in decisions made by conventions fairly elected in their primary meetings. Standing upon the good *ld State rights platform of '98, we shall oppose government corporations created by Congress for the purpose of internal improvement, the regulation of finance r any other measure inconsistent with the rights of the States.

·3d. Believing that the platform adopted by the late Baltimore convention contains the democratic creed, they expect cordially to sustain the present administration, trusting that the policy adopted by those who compose it will be regulated by the cardinal doctrines of the American democracy. 4th. They will advocate all such measures of in-ternal improvement as promise by judicious prose-cution to promote the interests of the people and benefits of a system already enjoyed by diffuse the benefits of a system already enjoyed by portions of the State.

5th. The disposition of the public lands leing a question of the most absorbing interest, we relieve it should be at once met and settled. The unjust and unequal legislation of Congress, in relation to those lands, and the large and frequent appropriations made to the new States, indicate a final departure from the old and wise policy of appropriating the proceeds of their sales to the payment of the public debt, and the expenses of the government. It has for some time ceased to be either a subject of hope or expectation that there will ever be a return to a policy which had so much to recommend it. Believing that this system of squandering and prodigality is not only to tem of squandering and prodigality is not only to continue but to grow worse, we shall protest against it, and assert the right of the old States to their equitable share of the lands which remain. The power "to dispose of the public lands being explicitly declared in the Constitution, the exercise of that power is a question of policy, both as to the time and the mode." Believing, as we do, that it has become the settled policy of Congress to squander the public lands, we adopt the patriotic language of Mr. Dobbin, and say that "all of North Carolinas access both white and demoof North Carolina's sons, both whigs and demo crats, should protest, and demand North Caro ina's should protest, and demand North Carolina's share of the public domain."

6th. Approving of the sentiments of the inaugural of the President, we shall oppose the acquisition of Cuba or any other foreign territory, unless such acquisition be in accordance with existing treaties, and entirely consistent with the nations

THE NEW YORK MUSICAL REVIEW and Choral Advocate—Is the cheapest and best Musical Paper in the world. This journal, (which has heretofore been published monthly, (which has neretofore been published monthly,) commences its fifth year in January next, and thenceforwarded it will be published every two weeks—on every other Thursday; thereby giving more than twice as much matter without any in crease in price. Each number contains sixteer quarto pages, four of which are new music, con-sisting of glees, hymn tunes, chants, anthems, dedi-cation and holyday pieces, and, in short, every variety of music adapted to purposes of religious worship, to public occasions and to the home circle; all of which will be of a practical character and such as can be sung by persons of ordinar musical attainments. In the editorial departmen of the Review are engaged, (in addition to Mr. Cady, the former editor.) gentlemen of the highes talent and ripest musical experience, among whom are, George F. Root, Wm. B. Bradbury, Thomas Hastings, and Lowell Mason; and its circle of cor respondence, home and foreign, is complete. The Review will also be a regular medium for the an nouncement of new musical publications by all the eading publishing houses in the Union. The sub-scription list of this paper is now larger than that of any similar journal in the world, and the new arrangements, rendering it the cheapest as well as (it is hoped) the most valuable paper ever pub-lished, must !argely increase its already unparalelled circulation Terms: One dollar per annum, or six copies for five dollars, always in advance.

The music alone in a volume would cost over five dollars in the usual form. Besides this there will be an immense amount of musical news, essays, criticisms, instructions, &c., &c., all for only one dollar! Every one feeling a particle of nterest in the cause of music will surely subscribe. Specimen numbers sent on receipt of two lette postage stamps. Address, (always post paid)

SCOTT'S WEEKLY PAPER.—The publisher of this large and popular family journal offers for the coming year (1854) a combination of literary attractions heretofore unattemped by any Philadelphia weeklies. Among the new features will be a new and brilliant series of original romances by George Lippard, entitled Legends of the Last Century. All who have read Mr. Lippard's celebrated "Legends of the American Revolution," published for fifty-six consecutive weeks in the "Saturday Courier," will find these pictures of French and American history endowed with all the nower and heilingay of his provious reader. the power and brilliancy of his previous productions. The first of a series of original novelletter tions. The first of a series of original novements, called Morris Hartley, or the Knights of the Mystic Valley, by Harrison W. Ainsworth, is about to be commenced. It will be handsomely illustrated by twelve fine engravings, and its startling incidents cannot fail to elicit undivided praise. Emmerson Sennett, the distinguished novelist, and author of Viola, etc., etc., is also engaged to furnish a bril-liant novellette to follow the above. Mrs. Mary Andrews Denison, author of Home Pictures, Pa ience Worthington and her Grandmother, etc., will continue a splendid domestic novellette, en titled the Old Ivy Grove, and H. C. Watson an illustrated story called the Two Edged Knife—a graphic picture of early life in Old Kentucky. To hese will be added original contributions and selections from Mrs. Caroline Lee Hentz, Clara wood, and other distinguished writers; the news of the day, graphic editorials, full reports of the provision, money, and stock markets, letters from travelers at home and abroad, etc., etc.

Terms—One copy one year $2; two copies one year $3; four copies one year $5; nine copies one year, and one to the getter up of the club, $10; twenty copies one year and one to the getter up of the club, $20.

IN CASES OF REFUSAL BY HACKMEN TO TAKE I'AS-SENGERS.—Hackmen are required by law to carry all passengers rendering them the legal fare, unless previously engaged for the time necessary to trans-port passengers offering him the fare, under a penalty of five dollars.

When a hackman shall refuse to take passen gers, on the pica of a previous engagement, he is required to give the name and residence of the person by whom he is so engaged, under a penalty of five dollars. If it should appear that the plea of a previous engagement was a false one, or that the information of the name and residence of the person given by the hackman was false, then the hackman incurs a penalty of five dollars. PENALTY FOR DEMANDING ILLEGAL FARE.—The penalty for demanding a higher rate of fare for the transportation of passengers, is five dollars for each offence; and the person paying the illegal fare may recover back the amount over and above the sum allowed by law.

Where illegal fare is demanded or received of a stranger, or any person who shall not at the time have resided twelve months in the city, the pen alty for so doing is double, or ten dollars for each

Is allowed by law to drive any hack, cab, or sleigh for hire in this city, under a penalty of five dollars. How to Vindicate the Law.—Strangers and others arriving in the city by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, who shall apply to a hackman for the use of his vehicle and be refused, or who shall be asked and required to pay over and above the legal rates of fare, will observe the number on the hack, and immediately inform the police officer whose duty it is to be in attendance at the depot. That officer will protect the passenger from imposition, secure him a hack, and prosecute the of-sition, secure him a hack, and prosecute the of-fending hackman.

Any refusal or neglect by the police officer at the depot to execute the law in this respect he knows will be followed promptly by his dismissal.

Strangers reaching the depot from steamboats or other places from whom illegal fare is demanded will apply to the police officer in attendance, whose duty it is to ascertain whether the fare demanded be illegal, and if so, to prosecute the offending hackman.

completion of this, the most elaborate, compre-bensive, and perfect Gazetteer of the United States that has ever issued from the press. In its preparation no considerations of expense or labor have been allowed to interfere with a work designed to be as perfect as possible in every department, and in all of its detail. Nor have the successive issues of other Gazetteers, hurried through the press to claim the market, tempted the publishers to offer their book before all the ample census (of 1850) and other material in the nands of the editors were fully digested and accuwhen the Gazetteer was first announced 800 pages, or at the most 900, were designed as the limit of the book. But so vast was the amount of matter, accumulated through the personal labors of the editors and their assistants, as well as through the active efforts of several thousand cor-respondents in all parts of the United States, the work has swelled to near 1,300 pages. The amount of new matter which it contains, all of a amount of new matter which it contains, all of a recent character, is very large, and in many instances embracing statistics and populations to 1853. This gives it an intrinsic value over every other work of the kind in existence.

We therefore offer our Gazetteer confidently, as the only complete and thoroughly reliable Gazetteer of the United States yet published.

As above stated, the work is now ready, and will be published in December, 1853. Price to subscribers, $3 50; to non-subscribers, $4.
